“Animal Farm” Essays

‘Animal Farm’ by George Orwell, a British journalist and satirist of the 20th Century, is an allegory of life in Russia after the Russian Revolution, but it also stands as a satirical study of the failed promises of revolutions and of the dictatorships which often follow. The novel is taught to all students in Grade...

Professional Development: ICT

BY YOUSSEF ABI-HAIDAR Despite the difficult living and working situations during this Covid-19 lockdown, our BHS staff continue to work and develop professionally. ICT Manager Youssef Abi-Haidar attended a Microsoft online workshop entitled Securing Remote Work: Identity and Threat Protection. This workshop contained a collection of security learnings, principles and recommendations for securing access and...

Watch Ms Maya Bechara Harfouche reading this lovely and very meaningful story that she herself created and wrote! Bravo Ms Maya and thank you for providing this to our students and community.

Ruby thought of what the fairy said and decided to enjoy everything around her. She promised herself to keep a smile on her face and stay happy.

Deadline Extended for the Tom Young Art Competition

Share this article:

Would you like the chance to spend the day working alongside a famous British artist in Lebanon? Well, the deadline for the competition has been extended now to Monday, May 25th. One lucky winner from the Elementary section and another from Upper School will have the opportunity to join Mr Tom Young in his studio or on site at his latest exhibition after lockdown.
