Snapchat: How to support anti-bullying.

The holidays are approaching! This is wonderfully positive and offers you the chance to take a much-deserved break.

A different approach today. You are concerned that your friend is being bullied on Snapchat. How do you help them?

Snapchat state that they review each report within 24 hours, usually.

This email covers: 1) Privacy 2) Reporting for a friend 3) Supporting a friend to report

You do not ever put up with being on the receiving end of a bully on Snapchat.
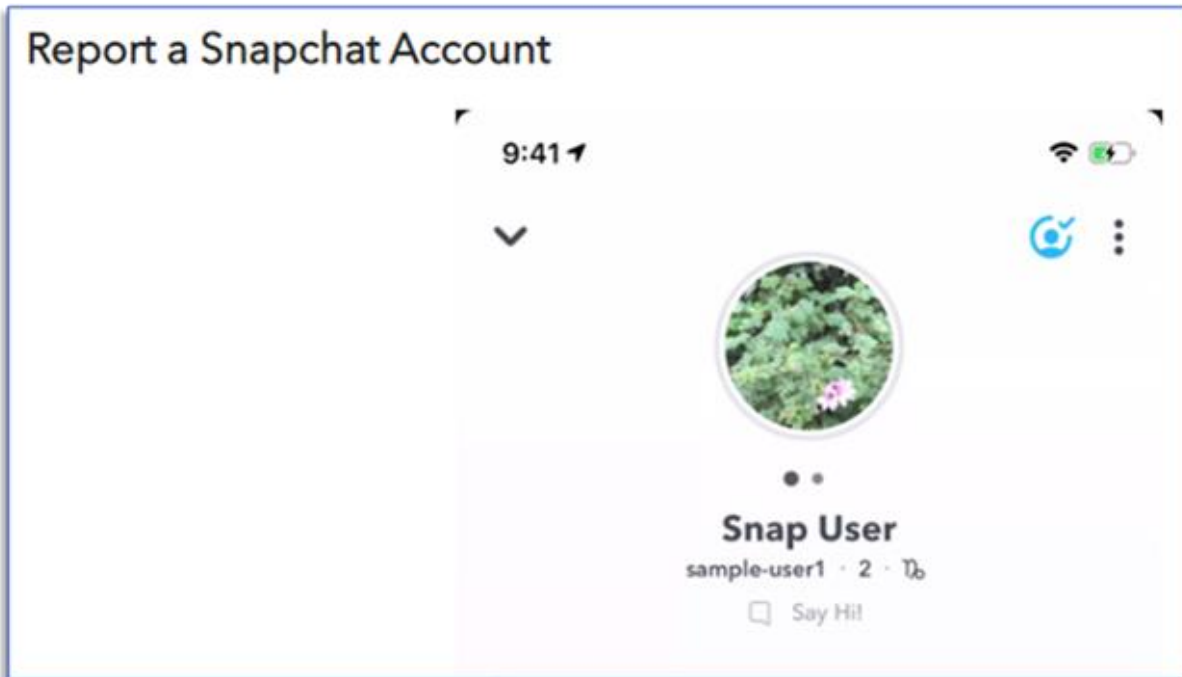

1) On Snapchat Privacy is automatically private

Only 'Friends' you've added on Snapchat can contact you directly or view your Story.

Always take screen shots of cyberbullying. Keep those screen shots safe.

2) If you are reporting for a friend you must go to the Snapchat website. https://support.snapchat.com/en-US/i-need-help?start=5153567363039232

3) If you are supporting a friend to report cyberbullying on Snapchat:
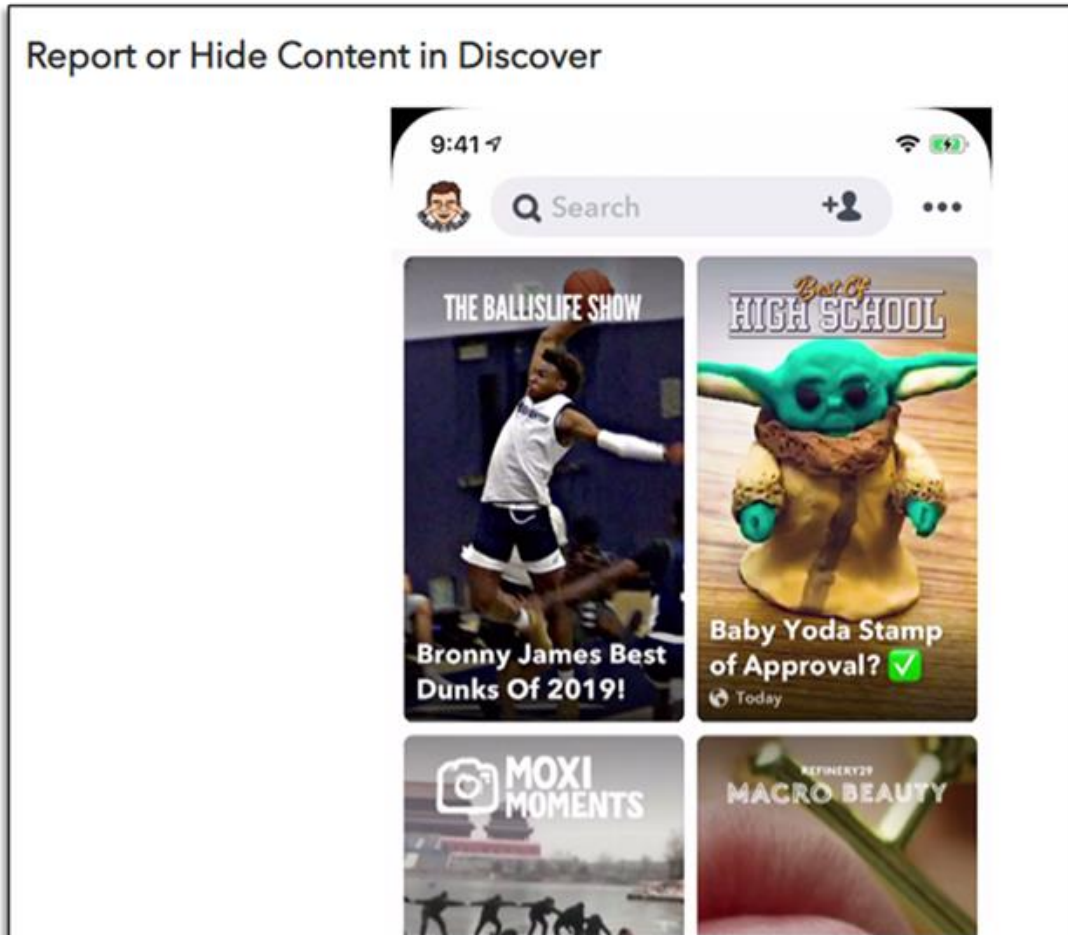

Report a Snapchat Account

1. Press and hold on the Snapchatter's name,
2. Tap 'More,'
3. Tap 'Report.'

Report a Snap or Story on Snapchat

To report a Snap or Story

1. Press and hold on it until ⚑ appears at the bottom of the screen.
2. Tap ⚑ to let us know what's going on.

Report or Hide Content in Discover

To report content in Discover,

1) Press and hold on the tile.
2) Tap 'Report Tile.'

Snapchat support

- https://support.snapchat.com/en-US/a/privacy-settings2

How to block or delete friends

- https://support.snapchat.com/en-US/a/remove-block-friends

If you are being cyberbullied tell someone online or offline.

4) Delete the App. Seriously it is not worth the amount of stress being caused to you. Post a message saying that are taking a breather from Snapchat due to somebody posting anonymously and you cannot be bothered with their hate. You have better things to do with your life.

Kaspersky identify 10 types of cyberbullying.
https://kids.kaspersky.com/10-forms-of-cyberbullying/

E.g. Outing

Outing is a deliberate act to embarrass or publicly humiliate you by posting private or embarrassing information without your consent.