BHS #ICARE Competition

The BHS #icare competition called for interested students to design a new BHS logo for the return to school in a Covid-safe environment. We received many entries to the competition and a hearty well done to all students from across the school who participated. Art teacher Ms Magda Hashem had the following to say: ...

Cycling for Brummana High School Bursary Fund

By Sarah Barrett who is fundraising for Quaker International Educational Trust You may be wondering why an apparently random foreigner has decided to support the education of children at Brummana High School! Well, in large part it's because of the 'roots' I mention on my Crowdfunder page. My great grandfather was among the earliest pupils...

brummanahighschoolofficial Expressive and creative image from students in Ms Nelly's Sec 2 Humanities class for Jonathon Swift's essay 'A Modest Proposal'. Here they provide details. This poster represents the recurring idea in the essay which is that the poor are selling their babies to the rich for money. In other words, the poor are serving their kids to the rich to eat, getting money in return. This shows Swift's proposal which sheds light on the dire and miserable situation in Ireland as well as the ignorance present in it. The slogan 'one baby to go' expresses how normal it would be if people sold their children since living in Ireland was so unjust and trying. These tough living
