A Message to Infants' Parents from Principal David Gray:
Dear Parents of the Infants' Section,
The first three days of having children in the School, in classes, since March, have gone smoothly and well, and will continue on Friday, after the holiday for the Prophet's birthday tomorrow.
Children have been happy to be back in a social environment in classes of around 15 or 16 and teachers have been pleased to see the children and to be able to resume normal teaching.
Health and Safety and social distancing measures, as appropriate, have been implemented, and Mrs. Nada Bou Jawdeh has been happy to answer parental concerns, which are natural after such a long period of absence. I am grateful to all the staff for their care of the children, to the Medical team for their guidance, advice and insistence that rules are followed, and to our cleaning staff for ensuring that Classrooms are kept thoroughly cleaned and sanitised. Please keep talking to us. We are here to listen and to ensure that your children's welfare, health and education are fully provided for.
Yours sincerely,
David Gray
Principal
