Lower Elementary Back at School

It was great to be able to welcome back Lower Elementary students on Wednesday, November 4th in a Covid-safe, hybrid return. Students were delighted to be back and to be able to see their friends and teachers. Even the dark clouds and heavy rains didn't put them off! The Grade 1 and 2 levels gathered...

Boarders' Hike to Mar Chaaya

The Boarding Community took the opportunity to go on a hike on Thursday afternoon, 29 October to Mar Chaaya, as school was closed for the Prophet's Birthday public holiday. They started from the beginning of the driveway leading up to the main area. Rather than taking the traditional road up to the Mar Chaaya church,...

KGs Playing Outside

KG2 and KG3 students have been enjoying the outside play areas (and especially while the weather still holds!) during their Covid-safe return to school. Masks are not required to be worn outside but social distancing is watched for. The children are simply taking a walk, running and enjoying their time. Being outside for a short...
