Today we remember with deep sadness the passing away of a colleague of 15 years' standing, Mrs. Micheline Abi Rached, who was a teacher and the Special Arabic Coordinator in Brummana High School's Elementary Section. She was a dedicated teacher who had genuine empathy with the children she taught and who was loved and respected by her students and colleagues. She was a warm and compassionate professional who will be greatly missed by all members of the BHS Community. Our thoughts remain with her husband, Khalil, and with her family, as they have been since Thursday evening.
