Open Letter from BHS Principal David Gray

The lockdown continues. Lebanon has experienced a torrent of Corona Virus cases and a rapidly increasing number of deaths daily since Christmas and the country has been in total lockdown (according to the UK's BBC, one of the strictest in the world), since the middle of January. Very sadly, one of our own teachers passed...

Report Card Writing Workshop for HODs with Principal David Gray

Mr Gray opened the workshop by suggesting to Heads of Department and other participants that report cards are perhaps one of the few documents that will be read more than once and by several people (e.g. student, mother, father, grandparents). He welcomed attendees to ask any preliminary questions which included whether to write in the...

Fruity Friday

"An apple a day keeps the doctor away" has for many years been the legendary golden rule to ensure good health and happiness. At Brummana High School, the infant section teachers have initiated the idea of "Fruity Friday" as a nutrition educational activity that encourages the students to apply the nutrition knowledge that they have learned in...
