BHS Gives

The school is very pleased to announce summary news on the achievement of the BHS Gives campaign held at the beginning of December. Thanks to the generosity of so many in our community – parents, old scholars, staff, governors, ex-staff members, Quakers in the UK and right around the world, friends of the school and...

brummanahighschoolofficial Next week (9-12 Feb) Sidcot School, a UK Quaker school, is raising money for BHS as part of their Random Act of Kindness week. The Sidcot School community will walk/run/cycle a sponsored 4715 kilometers, the total distance from there to BHS. We wish them the best of luck in this wonderful and much appreciated initiative.

Did you know that HRH Prince Philip, the Duke of Edinburgh inaugurated the main BHS boarding facility - Edinburgh House - on March 22nd, 1967?
During the ceremony, the Duke unveiled a plaque dedicating the building as 'Edinburgh Cultural Hall'.
A copy of the BHS 'Golden Book' shows the signatures of some of the dignitaries who attended this historic moment.
General Jamil Lahoud, HE Salim Lahoud, HE Albert Mukhaiber (Old Scholar), Mr. Andre Tabourian, HE Salam Bin Mohamed alKhalifa (Bahrain), HE Maurice Gemayel, Mrs. Mary Mendenhall, Mr. Jack Matossian, and Dr. Philip Manassah.

Did you know that education provided by BHS is based on the Quaker principles which stress lack of involvement in political activity, lack of discrimination, no acknowledgment of national or racial divisions and promotion of the spirit of service? This is also the basis of the school motto 'I Serve'!
