World Book Day at BHS

By the BHS Library Team We sorely miss putting real books into children's hands. It's why we became Librarians, because if you get it right – it's like magic and when children read, amazing and magical things do happen. But if changing over to e-books and other kinds of digital books is what we need...

Boarding Registrations

The school continues to receive boarding enquiries for the coming academic year 2021-2022. With some of these families (both Lebanese and international) now applying for their children to join BHS, and them added to our current boarders staying on, next year promises to be another diverse, multicultural and enjoyable one in the Boarding Community, especially...
