Did you know that on December 18, 2020, LibanPost – in collaboration with the Ministry of Telecommunication and Brummana High School – put into circulation the first official Postage Stamp for BHS?

The unveiling ceremony took place at the BHS Meeting House and had various dignitaries in attendance, including His Excellency Mr. Talal Hawat, the Minister of Telecommunications, representing His Excellency Prime Minister Dr. Hassan Diab (a BHS Old Scholar) as well as other dignitaries including Mr. Adel Zeinoun, Deputy Mayor of Roumieh Municipality, Mr. Ronnie Richa, Senior Marketing Manager of LibanPost, and Mr. Najj Chakhtoura, Vice President of the BHS Old Scholars Association.

The stamp was designed by Mrs. Meia Hobeika Bechra, Head of Arts and Crafts at BHS, while the First Day Cover was designed by Grade 10 student, Marina El Helou. 150,000 Stamps and 1,000 First Day Covers have been issued in Lebanon and are available at all LibanPost offices and their e-shop, as well as the BHS Bookshop.
