BHS in Top 10 ME schools and Top 100 worldwide

BHS is delighted to be included in the 2021 Spear's Schools Index in partnership with Carfax Education, the international educational consultancy headquartered in the UK. Spear's Schools Index is the leading international ranking of top private schools. Our school has been chosen by expert education consultants at Carfax and researchers at Spear's. Featured schools are...

Quaker Values

In line with the school's motto 'I Serve', the BHS community is proud to embody the Quaker Values of individuality, service, equality, respect, peaceful resolution and environmental stewardship. Ask any old scholar of the school and one of the first points they say tell you about BHS, their experience and impact is how the motto...

Down Memory Lane: Robert Bruce Laycock

Old Scholar Robert Bruce Laycock who attended BHS for three years in 1967, 1968, and 1969 while his father worked in KSA, recently contacted the school reminiscing about his days at BHS and congratulating the school on the launch of its Lebanese stamp! He considers those years spent in Brummana among the greatest times of...

Book Donations – Thank you

Thank you very much to Principal David Gray, teacher Tania Nammour, old scholar Kamar Ibrahim, and an anonymous donor for donating various books to the BHS libraries. In addition, the school is extremely thankful to the late Chairman Hani Aboul Jabine, may his soul rest in peace, for the new books he had sent to...
