Congratulations to students Mea A.H. and Christia M., Grade 6 and Grade 2 respectively, on making the shortlist for the popular art competition from the Chinese Embassy! The competition was part of the celebrations for the 50th anniversary of China's embassy in Beirut. Today the students received their awards and gift bags (courtesy of the Chinese Embassy @ChinaInLebanon) from Principal Gray and in the presence of their parents.

Thank You for Parent Donations

A thank you message from Principal David Gray:
Thank you very much to all parents who have donated, for your generous response to my email requesting support in fresh dollars for our hard pressed teachers and staff, who are so committed to the children in their care. Your awareness of the need to support each...

And this happened... 1982 wins the Murex D'or for Best Lebanese Film (2019-2021)... a beautiful and humbling win in the Homeland of the film.

Thank you to the team of believers, the crew and cast who poured their creative hearts and souls in the making of this film and creating a world imbued with the truth of who we are...
"A film that finds hope in the most difficult of times..."

Thank you Murex D'or, Zahi Helou, Fady Helou, Emile Chahine and the jury for bestowing this honor.
