New Head of Secondary Section

Our new Head of the Secondary Section, Hani Khalife, has arrived and began work on Monday the 4th of October. We are delighted to welcome him to BHS and hope that all members of our community will take the opportunity to meet him when they can. He arrives full of commitment, enthusiasm and with a real interest in...

Friends of Brummana

The school's Quaker Trustees continue to progress in their efforts for international reach for fundraising and support. This Friends of BHS group is being established for exactly that purpose – for Quakers in the UK and Ireland to meet, discuss, coordinate and publicise the school's extreme current challenges, with their Quaker Meetings and networks in...

World Quaker Day

We are very pleased to be able to mark this important day around the world. On the first Sunday each October, BHS and Quakers around the world stand together to celebrate World Quaker Day. We are happy to be a part of this wide Quaker family. The first-class, Quaker-value education has been going since 1873...

Joining the Botanic Gardens Conservation International

The school is very pleased to join the Botanic Gardens Conservation International to support the development of our ancillary botanical garden on campus. Our membership connects us with hundreds of botanical gardens worldwide, as well as the main botanical garden at BGCI headquarters, which is of course the Royal Botanical Gardens at Kew, London. For...
