BBSS Dubai and Old Scholars Meeting

Thanks to the generous support of OSA President Nazih Khattar and the Old Scholars Association, the school is very much looking forward to being represented at the British Boarding Schools Show in Dubai at the end of the month. BHS will be the only Middle East school present and we are fortunate to have been...

'Teachers still give 100 per cent, even as the country disintegrates'

The View from Here: Brummana High School in Lebanon continues to provide education as the country is forced to its knees, writes principal David Gray

I write to you from Lebanon and a country whose dramatic plight continues to be headline news. Quite frankly, so it should be. This disintegrating country offers little...

IRISH “FRIENDS OF BRUMMANA”

Thanks to all the Friends in Ireland Yearly Meeting who have supported the students and the school at Brummana near Beirut through our Bursary Appeal. As Friends will know, the collapse of the Lebanese economy, following on from the country's long political problems and the terrible explosion at the port, have left the school, its...

A-Level Orientation

On the evening of 27 October, Principal Gray hosted the orientation for A-levels to students and their parents. This was a successful occasion on which parents and students were quite clear about the differences between A-level and the IB and how the A-level system works. Mr Gray felt it was a great improvement on the...

Off to the Library!

By Carmen Hajj Research studies prove over and over again that reading has a positive impact on academic performance and increases student achievement. For this purpose, the Upper School Library (Thomas Little Memorial Library) aims to develop good reading habit and ensure that the school community has equitable access to it. The library gives users...

Prefect Orientation

Thursday, November 4th saw Head of Secondary Mr Hani Khalife presenting to the newly elected Prefects in the Secondary school. After much deliberation between Principal Gray and Mr Hani, it was decided that all Prefects who interviewed deserved the opportunity to become a Prefect and take on the responsibilities that this position carries. Mr Hani,...
