Busy, Productive Week of Fundraising Activities for Principal

Last Tuesday, Principal David Gray chaired the meeting of the Donations and Communications (D&C) Committee attended by the Bursar, Raymond Feghali, and by the Marketing Manager, Richard Bampfylde. They looked at fundraising and Mr Gray was pleased to note that 125,000 US Dollars had been raised from the BHS Gives 2021 Appeal between the beginning...

Fundraising for Capital Projects

The school has identified a number of capital projects for 2022 which may appeal to certain potential donors around the world. These include ICT equipment (including desktops and laptops as well as an upgrade to the system), solar panels (phase one of the campus solar project) and covering the swimming pool (as currently the outdoor...

Principal Meets with TA & PA

Before lunch last Friday, 28 January, Principal Gray had a meeting with the Teachers' Association (TA) in the Meeting Room. The TA were able to ask a number of questions including what would happen to salaries for 2022-2023 given the challenging times in Lebanon. Principal Gray was able to discuss the many important matters and...

Snow Covered Campus

Last week the snow storm covered our campus and closed school for a day (Thursday, 27 January). The Brummana campus is pretty spectacular most/all days of the year yet we feel it is perhaps even more so on snowy days like this. Enjoy these pictures of the snow covered BHS campus, highlighting how the snow feel...

A cool photo of BHS student, Karl Farah, with Old Scholar and Basketball star, Karim Zeinoun '17 at yesterday's exciting game that was won by Karim's team, Al Riyadi!
Karl congratulated Karim on a game well played and Karim informed him that he used to belong to Waldmeier House when he was at BHS!
