Junior Rugby Jackals

Taking their names from the wild animal that roams Mount Lebanon and other parts of the country, the school's junior rugby jackals are turning into a collective of Lebanese and international superstars and as effective at scoring tries and winning matches as jackals are at catching prey. Saturday saw them playing in the last round...

Throwback to the first ever OSA meeting in Muscat, Oman on February 4 and 5, 1999.

That day, the OSA delegation met with many Old Scholars, one of whom was Old Scholar Assayid Qais Bin Tareq Taimour, who is the brother of the current Sultan of Oman, His Majesty Haitham Bin Tareq '73 who is also a BHS Old Scholar!
