A Quintessential, Determined Life – From Swiss Boarding to Brummana High School and Being 100% Certain in Your Wish

At the age of 14 and a half it would be hard to take being called back to Lebanon by your Ras Beirut mother having just experienced many wonderful school years boarding at a Swiss Alps snow station school. Yet, that is exactly what Mrs Sarah Abou Ayyash experienced and, despite suggesting she was happy...

Development Plan 2021-2022

Dear Colleagues, Amidst the changes and uncertainties of life in Lebanon, BHS development planning has gone ahead as forecast at the start of the year. There have been 3 whole school development plan items and one Development plan item for each of the 4 sections. In this document I am reporting on the whole school...

Lebanese Women's Basketball Team Heading For The FIBA Asian Cup 2022

Secondary student Megan N. is on the Lebanese Women's Basketball Team heading for the FIBA Asian Cup 2022. Lebanese news blog the961.com published the below article: The Lebanese women's basketball team (youth) will represent Lebanon in the Asian Championship. The delegation of the Lebanese women's basketball team (under 16 years old) left for the Jordanian...

Curriculum Committee Meeting

By David Gray In the afternoon of Wednesday 18 May, I attended the Curriculum Committee meeting chaired by the Vice Principal Academic. There was some excellent, open and frank discussion about the nature of reports and particularly the system of grading which needs to be looked at further and refined and about projects for development...
