

In KG1, we help develop our students' cognitive and psychomotor skills through practice and play. We use entertaining and engaging communication techniques like songs, chants, stories and discussion.

