

With the knowledge and skills developed in KG1, our students are now ready to work individually and in groups. Through a variety of hands-on and child-centred activities, we actively engage our students in their learning. The letters and sounds are introduced in all languages (English, Arabic and French) and are practiced through songs, tracing, writing and visuals. Maths and science lessons are practiced through exploration, investigation and observation.

