

In KG3, we implement the Cambridge Curriculum in English, science and maths. The Cambridge curriculum places a strong emphasis on getting students involved in their own education, encouraging them to think critically and cultivating a love of learning. Our lessons are theme-based and we nurture reading and communication through a range of activities including art and craft, show and tell, role-plays and experiments.

