

Brummana High School Child Protection Policy

The Child Protection Policy is designed in conjunction with Brummana High School's Pastoral Policy and the school motto "I Serve". The purpose of the Child Protection policies and procedures are:

1. to protect the child from abuse
2. to treat the interest of the children as paramount
3. to ensure that there are clear paths to follow when concern is identified

Brummana High School believes that it has a responsibility to raise awareness among all staff members about their shared responsibilities for identifying and responding to pupils who might be defined as 'at risk' or 'at potential risk'.

Brummana High School has clear systems and processes that will support members of the school community to report if they believe that a pupil is either 'at risk' or 'at potential risk' or that they themselves are 'at risk' or 'at potential risk'. Brummana High School has clear systems and processes that will support monitoring pupils thought to be 'at potential risk'. Brummana High School is a school which ensures that pupils feel safe and that they will be listened to.

Brummana High School will have a friendly and caring relationship with pupils; however, the basis of that relationship is professional and not personal.

Brummana High School will provide training to staff that will enable them to follow the Child Protection Policies and Procedures effectively.

Brummana High School is committed to working collaboratively with external agencies as required.

The Child Protection Policy at Brummana High School is guided by the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, to which Lebanon is a signatory, especially:

1. Article 3: All organisations concerned with children should work towards what is best for each child.
2. Article 19: Government should ensure that children are properly cared for and protect them from violence, abuse and neglect by their parents, or anyone else who looks after them.
