Week 40: The Lebanese Cedar Tree (الأرز اللبناني - Cedrus libani - family Pinaceae) is Lebanon's most famous tree, prominently featured on the Lebanese flag. It represents immortality, steadiness, and resilience.

The cedar forests of Lebanon, situated in the Lebanese mountains, are among the oldest documented forests in history. These forests are unique ecosystems with diverse flora and fauna. Though young in "cedar age," a beautiful tree resides next to the Upper Elementary B... See more

In addition to its psychological and educational benefits, STORYTELLING enhances imagination and creativity, improves vocabulary, and develops communication and listening skills. In order to encourage cooperation between students across all school sections, Marie-Jose Al. A. – IB 2 and Lynn H. – Sec. 3LP read aloud to students at the Infant and Lower Primary sections. Young learners were very attentive, they enjoyed the sessions and showed interesting verbal interaction. Stay... See more
