WEEK 6: The Rosemary (Salvia rosmarinus).
 An evergreen native plant, Salvia rosmarinus, a magnet to bees, can be found all around our campus, principally trailing down over terraces in full sun.
 More than 20 uses can be found for this fragrant, multi-use herb, including cooking (oil infusions, butter, drinks, cooking), medicine (mild analgesic, headaches, insomnia, and depression), mosquito repellent, dryer sachets, facial toners, and so forth.
 As part of the school's 150th a... See more
