Principal at the Old Scholars' Association Dubai Reunion

Principal David Gray flew to Dubai on Saturday, 4 March where he arrived late in the evening in preparation for a Sunday of meetings, lunches and dinners as a guest of the Old Scholars' Association Reunion. The Reunion was an enormously enjoyable event also attended by Shatha Abu Khalil as a guest of her son who...

Week 8: The Cyclamen flower (Cyclamen persicum– Primulaceae)
Of all the Cyclamen types found in Lebanon, this one is the most prevalent. Each root, leaf, and flower originate from a tuber that is underground (not a bulb), its ethereal pink hue is a welcome precursor to spring.
These delicate natural gems are abundantly scattered throughout the school's campus. The tennis court's lower stone wall has perhaps the most impressive display. Thousands upon thousands of plants grow ... See more

Thank You From Red Cross

The Lebanese Red Cross sent the school a letter of thanks for participating in their Annual Collection Campaign. Red Cross representatives had visited the school earlier to collect the donations which reached up to fifty seven million and one hundred and thirty three thousand Lebanese Liras in total. Thank you to our students and their...
