Week 11: The Olive tree (Olea europaea– Oleaceae)
The olive tree, Olea europaea, is an evergreen tree or shrub native to Mediterranean Europe, Asia, and Africa. Olives were first cultivated some 7,000 years ago in Mediterranean regions. The village of Bcheale, Lebanon, claims to have the oldest olive trees in the world (4000 BC for the oldest). To commemorate the school's 150th anniversary, a 150-year-old tree was planted on campus next to the Main Library Building. This majestic tree... See more

Olive Trees are Symbols of Resistance, Resilience, Hope, and Peace
Planted to Commemorate
BRUMMANA HIGH SCHOOL'S
150th ANNIVERSARY
01 - 02 - 2023

To commemorate the school's 150th anniversary, a 150-year-old tree was planted on campus next to the Main Library Building. This majestic tree immediately catches your heart and mind as a symbol of resistance, resilience, hope, and peace.
